Introduction of CMH Times

At October 30th, A great occasion called “THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF CMH TIMES” had occurred, which is very wonderful. Declared at the School Assembly time, Our Hon’ble Headmaster P. Durga Prasad said that it is another step forward for our school development and appreciated the efforts. In this magazine, almost all types of news will be covered. Since it is a weekly magazine, The occasions, announcements, trivia quizzes of the whole week will be covered. This magazine will be of maximum 8 pages. The images related to that occasion will be mentioned on Page 3.

All the best for your SA1 Exams

● From the editor

Since the Summative Assessment - 1, or Self Assessment Term -1 Examinations are about to begin, I thought why not, to give some suggestions about exams? Therefore, I want to give students & teachers some suggestions. First of all, to students. Don’t just study everything. Read the points and summary of the chapter. And second, Don’t remember the text, by-heart the meaning and the essence of the text. And, Read the running notes if you have. If you don’t, ask your class topper to tell some important points. Fourth point, Don’t waste your time during examinations, instead, read and study whenever you are free. Moreover, Underline or highlight the important points of the chapter and read them during exams. Sixth point to remember, Bring all the stationery related to the following day’s exam. For example, For Mathematics exam, bring your Compass Box. And coming to the teachers, Conduct an assessment everyday, and, don’t announce the questions early. Instead, Tell them to study a chapter, and give the questions at the time of Assessment. This way, students will study all the questions and they will never know what questions will come, just exactly like real examinations, Where we don’t know what will come. Hope this information will help the students’ and teachers’ to study and test well. Thank You!

Creativity Unveiled

- Talent Competitions by Eenadu
- Students from 7th were selected

Drawing competitions were held in City Municipal High School on Wednesday By Eenadu. And, Students from 7th class were selected for their talent. They were K. Satya Sri, T. Dara Hasini & S. Lekhana Angel. In this occasion, our Headmaster, P. Durga Prasad Garu, said that by drawing, we can find the students' creativity, and we can draw the social problems as paintings and drawings & spread awareness. For this competition, The Art Teacher, A. Ananthalakshmi Garu, was the judge. The prizes were given to the students on the hands of the Headmaster, P. Durga Prasad Garu & the President of the Parents Committee, A. Sri Devi Garu. The below image is the article published on Eenadu Newspaper about the competitions.

You're Welcome

Students, Want to show your creativity to the world? Then submit your art works and your details to The Editor, K. Samuel Praveen, 8th B at anytime in the week, and it will be published the next week on this page. If we receive a lot of artworks, we will select 5 best artworks and publish it (Don't be sad; the other artworks will be published the following next week). The names of who submitted the artworks will be announced every Monday at the School Assembly. On the other hand, Don't neglect your studies also! You're Welcome!
